Waco, Texas.
Aug. 6, 1918.

Dear Mr. Collier;

We want to thank you for the nice gift you sent our darling baby. It was very nice of you to remember him.

Grandmother Collier is coming to Waco this week from Galveston we are very anxious for her return.

The cotton crop is looking fire is this country now. It will make good, providing some pests doesn't start in.

Hopeing this find you well
I will close thanking you again
for the nice gift

yours truely
